New Orleans Public Library 2009 Summer Reading Program May 30th- August 1st

Presented by:
New Orleans Public Library Foundation and Friends of the New Orleans Public Library
Here's How to Participate

Stop by your neighborhood library and sign-up beginning Saturday May 30th and you will receive a reading log, bookmark, and a list of summer programs to attend. You can also sign-up on-line by logging onto www.neworleanspubliclibrary.org

Kick-Off Party on May 30th 11am-1pm at Latter Library includes performers, crafts, sno-balls and book giveaway

Read 8 books or 800 pages over the course of the summer to complete the program

Do the required reading and you'll join us for a party in your honor on August 1st. You also receive a Summer Reading Program Certificate, coupons for a free Wendy's Frosty, a Pizza Hut personal pan pizza and free admission to Special Summer Reading days at the Audubon Zoo (while supplies last).

About the Programs:

Adella, Adella the Storyteller- brings her special flavor to stories loved by all. Tales come to life and become treasure memories

Angela the Yarnspinner- uses the ancient art of storytelling to bring tales from around the world to life

AquaVan- Dive into the world of sea creatures and explore some of the habitats and animals inhabiting the world's seas. Get up close to find out how they move, eat and keep from getting eaten!

Lego Party! - We will provide the LEGOs and some models! You bring your creativity. You can take home whatever you create! Small snacks provided. Ages 6 and up

Longue Vue Gardens- Lady Bug art

Calliope Puppets-storytelling through beautiful puppets inspires respect and curiosity about endless diversity of our country and world.

Curtis Pierre- introduces the colorful world of percussion in a memorable display of rhythm and acrobatics

Hornets Bookmobile- a larger-than- life teal bus that aims to get children excited about reading, the Hornets Bookmobile brings free books for kids. Dates pending.

Irwin Royes-The World's Smallest Magician will mystify your eyes and tickle your funny bone.

The Journey of the Drum-travel through history with this enchanting program that features traditional drumming and songs

Philip Melancon-Melon Songs, local musician and storyteller weaves scales and tunes into a mesh of melon-thumping fun.

Pinkalicious Party 🍷 Kids will listen to this popular story by Victoria Kahn and decorate their own pink cupcakes. Participants will enter into a drawing to win Khan's new title "Goldilicious". Limit 25 Groups must call to sign-up.

Toni Batiste -Hip Hop with Toni B
This exciting and fast paced program offers students the opportunity to learn about the history and culture of this popular American dance form that encompasses many different styles of movement.

Wind on My Feathers-Sally Farrel brings live raptor birds of our world and explains their importance in our ecosystem.

Wetland Express-offers students an up-close experience with our Louisiana wetland animals

ZOOMobile- brings the wonders of the natural world to you by interactive presentations and hands on animal encounters
