

Indigenous and Endangered:

An Evening of Louisiana Poetry
A Language of Conservation Program

Featuring:
Darrell Bourque,
Louisiana Poet Laureate

With

Dave Brinks
Megan Burns
Gina Ferrara
Kelly Harris

Roger Kamenetz
Brad Richard
Jerry Ward

The Language of Conservation is an initiative of Poets House in partnership with the Audubon Nature Institute, the New Orleans Public Library and a consortium of zoos and libraries nationwide. It is made possible by a National Leadership Grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

Wednesday, August 4
7-9 pm
Latter Library
5120 St. Charles Ave.
596-2625

The New Orleans Public Library will make every effort to provide interpretation of library programs for the hearing-impaired. To request this service please, call 596-2605.