

Book Signing
with Paulette Jones

A woman reflects on her life and how her mother's tribulations affected her in this novel written by New Orleans writer, Paulette Jones.

Her Story: Revelations

recounts pain, depression, and anger handed down through four generations and the changes needed to save a current generation from that path.

Copies of the book will be on sale for $15.00 with 10% of the proceeds going to the Martin Luther King Library.

12:30 pm

September 2, 2010

Martin Luther King Library

1611 Caffin Ave.

596-2605